

DIMENSIONS WHERE AN ABNORMAL TRANSPORT PERMIT IS NOT REQUIRED FOR A VEHICLE REGISTERED IN AN EU/EEA COUNTRY

1 June 2020, updated 10 December 2020

The maximum dimensions for abnormal transport that do not require a permit, according to the Road Traffic Act and the Finnish Transport and Communications Agency Traficom's Abnormal Road Transport Regulation. Even if an abnormal transport does not require a permit based on its dimensions, the regulations regarding abnormal transport markings and warning measures must always be adhered to.

The general maximum permissible height of 4.40 m applies to all vehicle types in this table. Transports higher than this must hold an abnormal transport permit.

A vehicle or combination registered in an EU/EEA country	Width m ¹⁾	Length m ¹⁾	A transport permit can be granted for larger dimensions

¹⁾ A dimension exceeding the vehicle or a dimension generally permissible for the road may only be from an indivisible load.

²⁾ Length may be exceeded during loading or unloading if the load has been transported in a trailer.

³⁾ A permit available for a maximum width of 4.00 m and maximum length of 18.00 m.

⁴⁾ The permissible length of a combination of a lorry and an actual trailer or a lorry and multiple trailers is 34.50 metres when their width is less than 3.50 metres. If the width exceeds 3.50 metres, the permissible length is 30.00 metres.

⁵⁾ The length of the unladen trailer must exceed the generally permissible dimension for the road.

⁶⁾ A permit available for a maximum width of 4.00 m.

⁷⁾ A permit is available for widths up to 4.00 m, if the trailer is wider than 2.60 m and the load is no more than 1 m wider than the trailer.

⁸⁾ The permissible length of a combination of a lorry and towed machine is 30.00 metres.

Exceeding the load does not affect the granting of the permit within the limits of the above-mentioned clearance dimensions. Excessive loads affect the warning measures. For more detailed information, please refer to sections 5.1 and 7.2 of Traficom's Abnormal Road Transport Regulation.
